REPORT FROM "TALK! TALK! TALK!"

Lively discussions in "TALK! TALK! TALK!"

Students enjoyed talking with foreign teachers about interesting topics. You can learn a lot from the teachers and other participants. Don't hesitate to join next time. It'll be an opportunity not only to speak English but also to make new friends.

SEE WHO READ & WHAT BOOKS WERE READ THE MOST AND THE WINNER IS . . .

CONGRATULATIONS !

These graphs show "THE TOP FIVE READERS" and "THE TOP FIVE BOOKS" in 2007 from the books in the Student Support Room.

- 1 Yusuke Yagi is a 4th year student in Engineering. He decided to read as many books as he could last April. And now, he's won the first place!
- 2 Keiko Hongu is taking the S3 class "Extending Your Reading" taught by Patricia Lyons. It promoted her enthusiasm to read.
- 3 Hironori Nishida is Yusuke's friend and started later than he did. He has tried to follow Yusuke, and he could read 38 books. But he isn't satisfied with the result. He will try to read more from now on.

1st SECRETARY: APOLLO 13

2nd SECRETARY: Alladin and the Enchanted Lamp

3rd SECRETARY: Babe-Pig in the City

Manga Corner

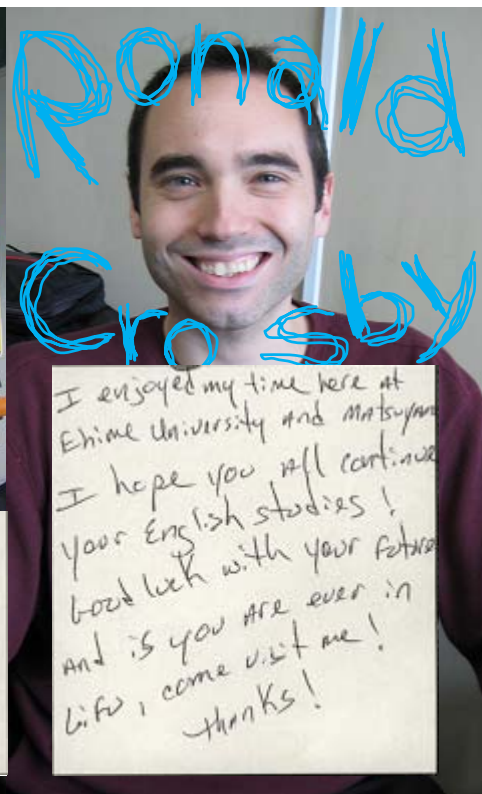

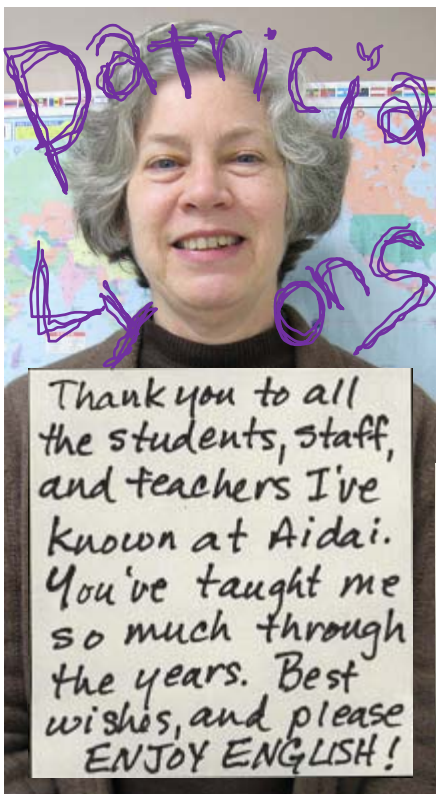

These are all GRADED READERS, Level 2.

GRADED READERS

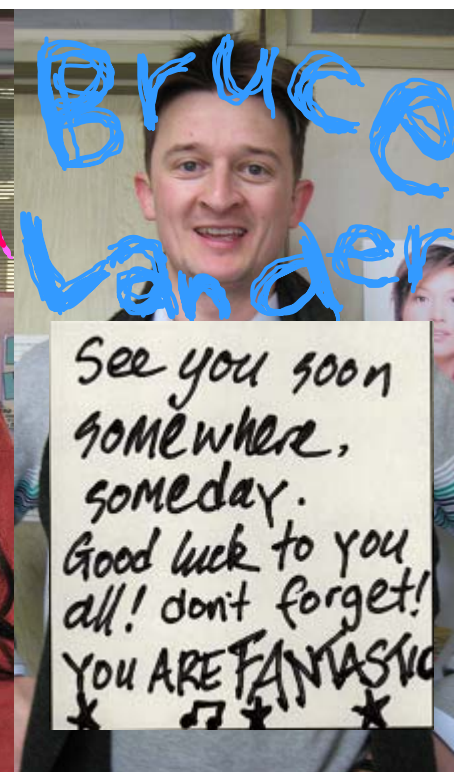

Visit the Student Support Room & try reading English books, watching DVDs, and so on.

GOOD-BYE, EHIME UNIVERSITY

OUR FAVORITE TEACHERS WE CAN SEE THEM AGAIN

This page was designed by the English Student Coordinators, who are Kanako K. (the main designer this time), Ayami N., Atsuki I., Keiko H., Kohei H., Mai M., Shuji K., and Tatsuya N. They are volunteering to help with English activities.

INFORMATION FROM ENGLISH GANG

We welcome you to participate in the READING PRACTICE during lunch break every Friday using the NHK Radio English Conversation Program text book "Let's Practice".
